Habitat Homeownership Program Information Summary

Qualified applicants enter into a partnership to build a decent, affordable home, which is sold to our homebuyer at the appraised value through affordable mortgage financing. Homebuyers meet criteria in three areas: need for housing, ability to pay, and willingness to partner. The application process is completed in multiple steps over several months, which includes selection and disqualification for some applicants.

Minimum Eligibility Requirements:

Applicants must live or work in our 5-county service area (Steele, Waseca, Dodge, Olmsted, Wabasha) or in a neighboring county not served by another Habitat affiliate.

Applicants and household members (age 18+) must submit to criminal background and sex offender registry studies.

Gross income should fall between minimum and maximum limits for total household size. Calculate the annual gross income of all household members, ages 18 and over, and compare it to the chart below. * This is a guideline only. Falling outside these income limits will not immediately exclude you from consideration. *

Household Size	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Minimum Income	$24,150	$27,600	$31,050	$34,450	$37,650	$43,150	$48,650	$54,150
Maximum Income	$64,288	$73,472	$82,656	$91,840	$99,187	$106,534	$113,882	$121,229

Willingness to Partner

Applicants agree to:

- Complete sweat equity hours in the construction of their home. (300)
- Participate in public relations appearances and related activities to promote the mission of Two Rivers Habitat for Humanity.

The Application Process:

Application:

The full application is available online or in person. All applicants will also be required to submit an application for home purchase financing through the US Department of Agriculture (USDA) Rural Development Home Loan Program. Applicants showing greatest need will be invited to continue in the process.

Family Interview: During this interview, we will review your current housing situation, discuss your need for Habitat homeownership and ability to pay an affordable mortgage, and review documentation provided throughout the application process. We will also discuss the expectations of your willingness to partner.

Final Decision: The Homeowner Selection Committee will review the information gathered and develop a recommendation for the Board of Directors, who make the final approval. Once chosen, the applicant will be notified and asked to complete a Homeowner Program Agreement outlining the partnership between the homeowner and Habitat for Humanity.

Home Building Begins: We build affordable homes that will meet or exceed Energy Star and Green Communities Standards, ensuring that the home will be energy efficient and affordably sustainable.

As part of the selection process, you will also be required to apply to the USDA Rural Development 502 Home Loan program as well as a loan through the VA Loan Program. This application will be provided by Two Rivers Habitat if you clear our initial evaluation. A brochure with information on the USDA application process and a buyer's guide overview for the VA loan product is included.

If an applicant does not apply to the USDA Rural Development 502 Home Loan program or VA loan program, they will need to be willing to apply to an alternative lending source

To find out more about the VA Home Loan program, visit the VA home Loan program website at Benefits.VA.Gov

Overview

Created by the original G.I. Bill (Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944), the VA-Guaranteed Home Loan program has helped generations of Veterans, Servicemembers, and their families enjoy the dream of homeownership and the opportunity to retain their homes in times of temporary financial hardship.

Should you have any questions about the VA Home Loan benefit or issues with your current home loan, feel free to contact us at: 1-877-827-3702.

What is the VA Home Loan 'Guaranty'?

The VA home loan guaranty is an agreement that VA will reimburse a lender (such as banks, credit unions, mortgage companies, etc.) in the event of loss due to foreclosure. This guaranty takes the place of your down payment.

Who is eligible for a VA Home Loan?

Active-duty servicemembers and Veterans with discharges other than dishonorable, National Guard and Reserve service members and Veterans with an honorable discharge, certain eligible spouses, and other uniformed service personnel may be eligible for VA home loan guaranty benefits. The full listing is available online at: <https://www.va.gov/housing-assistance/home-loans/eligibility/>.

Is there a fee to use the VA Home Loan Guaranty?

Yes, but the funding fee can be waived (see list below). To keep the program viable, Congress instituted a program funding fee, which is a percentage of the total loan amount. This user fee varies based whether the loan is a first-time or subsequent (second, third, etc.) use of the benefit. The funding fee may be paid in cash or included in the loan at closing.

*The funding fee can also be paid by the seller, lender, or any other party on your behalf. (See Chapter 8 of the Lenders Handbook)

The following individuals do not pay the VA funding fee:

- Veterans receiving VA compensation for a service-connected disability.
- Veterans entitled to receive VA compensation for a service-connected disability, but receive retirement pay or active service pay.
- Unremarried surviving spouses of Veterans who died in active service or from a service-connected disability.
- Service member with a proposed or memorandum rating from VA, prior to loan closing, as eligible to receive compensation as a result of a pre-discharge claim.
- Service member on active duty who provides, on or before the date of loan closing, evidence of having been awarded the Purple Heart.

Is there a limit to the size of a VA-backed mortgage?

There are no loan limits if one has full home loan benefit or full entitlement. If you are a first-time homebuyer or have sold your previous VA-backed home and paid your loan in full, you can enjoy VA-backing on a home loan regardless of home price and without the need for a down payment.¹ Of course, you must be able to afford the home and the property must appraise for at least the purchase price, otherwise you may have to make a small down payment.

Note: For loans made prior to 2020 that exceeded the Freddie Mac conforming loan limit, lenders required borrowers to pay a down payment for the loan amount above the county loan limit.

What if I want to buy a home while I still have another VA Home Loan?

While you can buy a home for any loan amount, you must either sell your previous home or understand VA rules on subsequent purchases and remaining entitlement. Those who purchase a subsequent home without selling their previous VA-guaranteed home will continue to follow their county conforming loan limit for the VA loan guaranty. This may mean a down payment on any amount above the loan limit.

Note: You must be able to afford all your VA loans at the same time and the subsequent home must become your residence. (See Appendix D: Reusing the VA Loan below or this blog)

Why choose VA?

The VA Home Loan is often the best home loan product for Veterans. Some benefits include:

- No down payment as long as the sales price is at or below the home's appraised value (the value set for the home after an expert review of the property) See VA Appraisal section below
- No loan limit with full entitlement if you can afford the loan, VA will back loans in all areas of the country, regardless of home price.
- Competitive terms and interest rates from private banks, mortgage lenders, or credit unions
- No need for private mortgage insurance (PMI) or mortgage insurance premiums (MIP)
 - o PMI is a type of insurance that protects the lender if the borrower ends up not being able to pay the mortgage. It's usually required on conventional loans if the down payment is less than 20% of the total mortgage amount.
 - o MIP is what the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) requires borrowers to pay to self-insure an FHA loan against future loss.
 - o Not having to pay PMI could save a borrower on their monthly mortgage payment
- Fewer closing costs, which may be paid by the seller, lender, or any other party
- No penalty fee for paying off the loan early
- Access to VA loan staff who can answer questions by mail or phone (1-877-827-3702). (Contact information is online at: https://www.benefits.va.gov/homeloans/contact_rlc_info.asp)

Rural Home Loans (Direct Program)

What does this program do?

Also known as the Section 502 Direct Loan Program, this program helps low- and very-low-income applicants buy decent, safe, and sanitary housing in eligible rural areas by providing payment assistance to increase their applicant's repayment ability. Payment assistance is a type of subsidy that reduces the mortgage payment for a short time. The amount of assistance is determined by the adjusted family income.

Who can apply for this program?

A number of factors are considered when determining eligibility for Single Family Direct Home Loans. At a minimum, applicants must have an adjusted income that is at or below the applicable low-income limit for the area in which they wish to buy a house (an income limit map is available at this <https://go.usa.gov/xzofst>) rate a willingness and ability to repay debt.

Applicants must:

- Be without decent, safe, and sanitary housing
- Be unable to obtain a loan from other resources on terms and conditions that can reasonably be expected to be met
- Agree to occupy the property as their principal residence
- Have the legal capacity to incur a loan obligation
- Meet citizenship or eligible noncitizen requirements
- Not be suspended or debarred from participation in federal programs

Properties financed with direct loan funds must:

- Be modest in size for the area
- Not have market value in excess of the applicable area loan limit
 - Not be designed for income-producing activities

Borrowers are required to repay all or a portion of the payment subsidy received over the life of the loan when the title to the property transfers, or the borrower is no longer living in the dwelling.

Applicants must meet income eligibility for a direct loan. You can visit the USDA Income and Property Eligibility website (available at this link: <https://go.usa.gov/xzcdM>) for complete details. Or, contact your local Rural Development office (a map is available at this link: <https://www.rd.usda.gov/browse-state>) to learn more.

What is an eligible area?

Properties must be located in an eligible rural area. Visit the USDA Income and Property Eligibility website (available at this link: <https://go.usa.gov/xzcdM>) for details.

How can funds be used?

Loan funds can be used to help low-income people or households buy homes in rural areas. Funds can be used to build, repair, renovate, or relocate a home, or to purchase and prepare sites, including providing water and waste treatment equipment.

How much can I borrow?

The maximum loan amount an applicant qualifies for depends on their ability to repay a loan. Rural Development considers various factors, such as income, debts, assets, and the amount of payment assistance the applicant is eligible to receive. Regardless of repayment ability, applicants can never borrow more than the area loan limit (plus certain other costs eligible to be financed) in the county in which the property is located (information is available at this link: <https://go.usa.gov/xzcGB> - PDF)

What is the interest rate and payback period?

- The interest rate is fixed, and based on current market rates at loan approval or closing, whichever is lower.
- When modified by payment assistance, the monthly mortgage payment can be reduced to a low as an effective 1 percent interest rate.
- The payback period is 33 years (38 years for very-low-income applicants who can't afford a 33-year loan term).

How much down payment is required?

Down payments are not typically required, but applicants with assets higher than the asset limit can be required to use a portion of those assets.

Is there a deadline to apply?

Applications are accepted year-round through your local Rural Development office. A map is available at this link: <https://www.rd.usda.gov/browse-state>.

How long does an application take?

Processing times vary depending on funding availability and program demand in the area in which the applicant is interested in buying. Processing times also are dependent upon the completeness of the applicant's package.

What governs this program?

- The Housing Act of 1949 as amended; 7 CFR, Part 3550 (available at this link: <https://go.usa.gov/xzcvG>)
- HB-1-3550 - Direct Single Family Housing Program Field Office Handbook (available at this link: <https://go.usa.gov/xzcvM> - PDF)

NOTE: Because citations and other information are subject to change, always consult the program instructions listed in the section above titled "What Governs This Program?" You can also contact your local office for assistance (a list is available at this link: <https://go.usa.gov/xzjP7>). You will find additional forms, resources, and program information at rd.usda.gov. USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.
